positing receiver were surrounding the Norrole players in a minute.

The officers from the Richmond force were on the seems at once and quieted
the crowd, after a great deal of trouble.
Those who were left in the grandstand were on their feet watching for what was expected to be a general fight. The policemen had to draw their clubs and fight the crowd back.

Bit for once it was not the Richmond players who started the row. The disgraceful conduct was due to the poorle who witnessed the game and who surged upon the field. It was well that the grandstand inhabitants were far enough away not to hear the language used my some of the citizens who pound into the diamond.

Manager Clark and his team from Norcole walked myer near the clubhouse, some of the citizens who poured into the diamond.

Manager Clark and his team from Norfolk walked over near the clubhouse, where a 'bus was standing, and were even then jeared at by those who had no better manners.

Both games were exciting enough for the people, and a crowd, the like of which has perhaps never before been in Broad Street Park, was present. The bleachers were crowded, the grandstand was packed until there wasn't a seat to be found, and around the field hundreds were seated to look at the great struggle between the two teams.

Under the most favorable circumstances, the first game started. Long was in the box for the Lawmakers, and Stanley, with his spit-ball, was pitching for the crew of the Mary Jane. Dingle, Seitz and McMahon went out in order for the visitors, and Richimond sent Boyd to bat for the first one. He was out on a fly to third, and Reeve singled and pilfered second. Slebrie fanned—and by-the-way, he did it three times in this game—and Doran sent a long one out to rightfield that was captured.

Wiley got one down the third base line, just about to the sack, in the second inning and the ball was called fair. Ficks thought it was a foul and therefore got an error on it. Clark sacrificed nicely and Jackson went out to center field. Hopkins got a single, advancing Wiley to third. Then Hopkins started from first to second and Hinton sent the ball down to second. Hopkins played between the bases and Wiley, who was on third, finally scored when Cuddy threw the ball high to Hinton at the home plate. Foster was the next batter, and sent one to Shaffer that was gobbled up after a pretty play.

plate. Foster was the next batter, and sent one to Shaffer that was gobbled up after a pretty play.

On almost the identical play the visitors scored another run in the third inning. Stanley fanned, and Dingle singled. Seltz walked, and Dingle scored on the play between the bases for Seltz. McMahon struck out, and Wiley was out from Reeve to Shaffer.

A passed ball after the man had fanned, an error and one lonely little hit scored two runs against Long in the sixth inning. The other tally, making the quintette, came in the eighth inning, when, after two men had taken the cemctery route, Jackson and Hopkins smacked two-base hits. Of course, Jackson had to score, for he was the first one to make the two-base crack.

Richmond got her first and only run in the third inning. Hinton led off with a hit, and Long duplicated the trick. Boyd sacrificed both of them, and Reeve dumped one to Stanley that waen't fielded properly, and Hinton scored. Then Richmond attempted the same thing that Norfolk had twice worked, and Long got caught at the plate. In her half of the ninth inning Richmond had a show, and the crowd started the excitoment. It certainly looked good for one or more runs when Slebrie led with a single. Doran got one to first, and Slebrie was forced at the second sack, with only one man out.

Hicks came to bat amid a round of to left field, and the game was lost.

ning, when everybody was looking the other way. Jackson smacked the third single.

In the seventh inning there was great excitement when McMahon, the fast third baseman or the Norfolk team, threw his but at Umpire Drew who had called hin out on sirikes. McMahon was roundly hissed by the crowd, it was an act that is not justifiable on any ground, and McMahon would have been put out of the game and off the diamond by any regular umpire. Drew Cadently didn't wish to punish a fellow-baff player, McLahon was fortunate, indeed, that he we playing at a time that the regular "umps" was not doing duty. It was McMahon, too, against whom the crowd had such a vengeance.

In the first inning of this game, Evans, catcher for the Norfolk aggregation, got a terrifte liek on the thumb of his right hand, and had to go to a physician. EACH TAKES ONE.

Portsmouth and Danville Break Even in Double-Header.

Even in Double-Header,
(Special by Southern Bell Telephone.)
PORTSMOUTH, VA., August 4.—Danville and Portsmouth broke even on a double-header here this afternoon, the visitors winning the first game by the score of 1 to 0, and the Truckers winning the last, 3 to 0. It was the first time that the Truckers had lost one of the games when the double-headers have been played. The first game went ten sharp innings, Danville scoring the winning run on a two-bagger by Richards, Richmond attempted the same thing that Norfolk had twice worked, and Long get caught at the plate. In her half of the ninth inning Richmond had a show, and the crowd started the excitement. It certainly looked good for one or more runs when Slebrie led with a single. Doran got one to first, and Slebrie was forced at second. Cuddy singled, and Doran nestled at the second sack, with only one man out.

Hicks came to but amid a round of applause, for he had done good work heretofore. He fouled one or two, and got some balls, and was playing with Foster when the ball came over. He struck it and got a tip foul. The ball wont high in the air, and Hicks threw his bat over Poster's head. Foster muffed the ball and Hicks was out for interfering. It was a bad piece of baseball, and Hicks, who has been in the game for a long time, ought to know better. Foster would very likely have dropped the ball, anyway—that is, the throwing of the bat didn't make him miss it—but the act was in itself a bad one. Shaffer flew out to left field, and the game was lost. ning run on a two-bagger by Richards, which was followed by Zulage, who ad-second that saw the score opened, one man crossing the plate for the Boes, but the Loces deprived them on their lead in the last half of the third, and by bunching hits got two runs home. Nothing further happened till the third, when a somewhat doubtful decision on the foul iline allowed two more runs to come in for the Chesapenice and Ohio Offices. From this point on, however, the Loces could do nothing with their opponents, and in the fourth, with the bases full, no outs, Straing forced a run home, and the side was not dismissed until four runs came home in that one inning, the tinal score being 10 to 2.

Wilkinson pitched a pretty game of ball, but the catcher found him a little hard to hold. The whole team played good ball, although the Locas got 8 hits they were not of much service. The Locos seemed lacking in combination, and it is to be hoped that their string of successes have not made them careless.

The team is to be made up of the strongest amateur players in the West End, and already has several important games scheduled in and near

The newly organized athlotic association team lost their first game to the Richmond Doctors by a sorre of 8 to 7.

Both teams played lossely at first, but steadled down after Dowden took the box for St. Andrew's in the lifth inning. The features of the game were Morgan's securing rive putouts in conter-field; Dowden's pitching, and Call's home run, which, though fairly earned by sending the ball over ligh-field fence, resuffed in no score, as he was called out for passing another base runner. The score in detail follows:

Cross Bats Monday.

Did you ever see two real good nogro baseball clubs play a match game? It is a sight worth going ten miles to see, even if you have to walk.

They do not pay near as much attention to rules and regulations as they do to muscle and rigor and hard work. They do not depend for success upon "head work," otherwise known as trickery, as much as they do upon arm work and leg work, and in this respect they are perhaps somewhat in advance, on moral lines at least, of their palefaced friends.

A peculiarity of colored baseball enthusiasis is that the "rocters" always root against the home team. This peculiarity is—so radically different from the custom of white rooters that to a white audience the "bisacheries," when a negro game is on, affords quite as much amusement as the diamond. N'sroes play mightyl good ball, as far as muscle and isses and good hurrah mo to make a good game, and when two really good olubs come togother ince who pay the small gate fee may rely upon an afternoon of genume fun.

Two good negro clubs will come together at the Broad-Street Park Monday afternoon, and there is real fun altend. The clubs are the "Astorias," of Richmond, and the "Oxfords," of Richmond, and the "Oxfords," of Petersburg. The price of admission is toents, grand-stand 10 cents extra.

Thy Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, August 4.—An appeal by Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, to the white voters to select legislators who will stop granting appropriations for the education of negro children is reported from Brookhaven, Miss., where the Governor to-day addressed a farmers meeting.

Taking up the negro question in Washington, Governor Vardaman, said there is need of a Jim Crow law reserving certain seats for negroes in that city. He as ald Southern Congressmen do not propose the enactment of such a law because they are afraid of criticism. He declared that, if chosen to represent Mississippi in the Upited States Senate, he sissippi in the Upited States Senate, he would coffer such a bill at least once a year. He said that he would rather he instrumental in securing the repeal of the fifteenth amendment than to wield the seeples of King Edward of England.
